Re: USA v. Burgess et al., (Tyshawn Burgess)
18 Cr. 373(RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We recently received a significant amount of discovery from the government to be reviewed before sentencing, much of which involved recorded telephone conversations. While we have been diligently reviewing the discovery, it seems that it would be cost effective to have our in-house paralegal, Jenna Dunlap, review these calls. Ms. Dunlap is a recent addition to our office and thus was not available to review the discovery previously.¹ There are 377 jail calls left to be reviewed (approximately 6032 minutes or 100.5 hours of calls). We are seeking approval of funding for Ms. Dunlap to review the remaining calls. We estimate that it will take approximately 60 hours to review the 377 calls that remaining. Therefore, we respectfully request that Ms. Dunlap be authorized to work up to 60 hours, at a rate of $75 per hour for a total of $4,500.

I have attached a copy of Ms. Dunlap's resume and paralegal certificate for Your Honor's review in consideration of this request.²

Respectfully submitted,
s/
Lorraine Gauli-Rufo
CJA Attorney for Tyshawn Burgess

¹ We initially had requested to contract a paralegal to review discovery on our initial submitted budget, however, that paralegal was never utilized by us because she was not available.

² We submitted Ms. Dunlap's paralegal certificate and resume as attachments to our submission to Your Honor via email.
